Re: FOIA Request NLRB-2023-001750

Dear Michael Angell (S&P Global):

This is in response to your request, under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552, received on July 19, 2023, in which you seek the signed charge against the union in International Longshoremen's Association, Case No. 22-CC-320892. You assumed financial responsibility for the processing of your request in the amount of $37.00.

We acknowledged your request on July 19, 2023.

Your request is granted in part and denied in part, as explained below.

A search of the Agency's electronic casehandling system, NxGen, has been conducted. This search has located the requested signed charge (four pages), which is attached.

After a review, I have determined that portions of the attached record are exempt from disclosure under Exemptions 6, 7(C) and 7(A) of the FOIA (5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6), (b)(7)(C), and b(7)(A)). Specifically, redactions have been made to protect the privacy interests of individuals named in the records. These redactions were made pursuant to FOIA Exemption 6, which protects personally identifiable information, the release of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy; and FOIA Exemption 7(C), which protects records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, the release of which could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6) and (b)(7)(C). Other portions of the record are part of the investigative file in an open case and are privileged from disclosure at this time pursuant to FOIA Exemption 7(A) of the FOIA. 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(7)(A). Exemption 7(A) allows an agency to withhold information included in an open investigatory file where disclosure could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings. See NLRB v. Robbins Tire & Rubber Co., 437 U.S. 214, 236 (1978).

For the purpose of assessing fees, we have placed you in Category A, commercial use requester. This category refers to requests “from or on behalf of a person who seeks information for a use or purpose that furthers the commercial, trade, or profit interests of the requester or the person on whose behalf the request is made, which can include furthering those interests through litigation.” NLRB Rules and Regulations, 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(1)(v). Consistent with this fee category, you “will be assessed charges to recover the full direct costs of searching for, reviewing for release, and duplicating the records sought.” 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(2)(ii)(A). Charges are $9.25 per quarter-hour of professional time. 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(2)(i).

Thirty minutes of professional time was expended in searching for and reviewing for release the requested material. Accordingly, please remit $18.50.
